The reading from the prophet Isaiah this Sunday contains a remarkable prediction—the end of war between nations (Isaiah 2:4). So why hasn't it been fulfilled? We can look to the second reading and the Gospel for some hints. Both readings talk about being awake and ready for our salvation (Romans 13:12) or the coming of the Son of Man (Matthew 24:39). Being awake doesn't mean consuming lots of coffee or turning the music volume all the way up. Paul calls it "putting on the Lord Jesus Christ" as a soldier would put on armor before a battle. He even mentions rivalry and jealousy as attitudes to avoid. What if we not only avoided them, but also taught our children to avoid them? What if everyone eventually learned not to be jealous and hateful? We are a long way from ending all wars. There are still people who teach hate to the poor instead of helping to feed them. There are still people who get rich selling the weapons of war. This brings us back to the first reading, in which Isaiah speaks of beating swords into plowshares. Instead of trying to stop all wars, could we at least show forgiveness to someone who has hurt us? Maybe we need to be ready to share our faith. Maybe we have to be awake to any opportunity to show God's love to those around us. If we can just be patient with other people's faults and weaknesses, we may not stop all wars, but we will be prepared for the coming of the Prince of Peace.

La primera lectura del profeta Isaías contiene una predicción notable: el fin de la guerra entre las naciones (Isaías 2,4). Entonces, ¿por qué no se ha cumplido? Podemos consultar la segunda lectura y el Evangelio para obtener algunas pistas. Ambas lecturas hablan de estar despiertos y preparados para nuestra salvación (Romanos 13,12) o para la venida del Hijo del Hombre (Mateo 24,39). Estar despierto no significa tomar mucho café ni subir el volumen de la música al máximo. Pablo dice: "Revístanse más bien, de nuestro Señor Jesucristo" como un soldado se pondría la armadura antes de una batalla. Incluso menciona la rivalidad y los celos como actitudes que debemos evitar. ¿Qué pasaría si no solo los evitáramos, sino que también enseñáramos a nuestros hijos a evitarlos? ¿Qué pasaría si todos aprendiéramos a no ser celosos ni odiosos? Estamos muy lejos de acabar con todas las guerras. Todavía hay quienes enseñan a odiar a los pobres en lugar de alimentarlos. Todavía hay quienes se enriquecen vendiendo armas de guerra. Esto nos lleva de vuelta a la primera lectura, donde Isaías habla de convertir las espadas en arados. En lugar de intentar detener todas las guerras, ¿podríamos al menos perdonar a quien nos ha hecho daño? Quizás debemos estar dispuestos a compartir nuestra fe. Quizás debemos estar atentos a cualquier oportunidad para mostrar el amor de Dios a quienes nos rodean. Si tan solo pudiéramos ser pacientes con las faltas y debilidades de los demás, quizá no detengamos todas las guerras, pero estaremos preparados para la llegada del Príncipe de la Paz.

Simbang Gabi is a unique Filipino tradition of celebrating nine-day novena of Marian masses to heighten our preparation for the celebration of the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Through Simbang Gabi, the participating parishes of Vicariate I, deaneries A, B, and C offer the faithful a deepening of spiritual experience that leads to a more meaningful Christmas season.

Each of the parishes listed below will host one of the evening masses.

The Filipino community of the participating parishes would like to extend a cordial invitation to all parishioners, families, and friends to come and share this cherished Filipino tradition at:
